CATEGORIES

Please select one of the following categories. Nominees must be active, operational members of the SES to be eligible.

- Peter Keillor Award
In honour of former Murray SES volunteer Peter Keillor, this award is presented annually to a volunteer who has gone beyond the call of duty in demonstrating a high level of dedication and commitment to the SES.
- Team Achievement Award
Awarded to a SES unit or team who have initiated a new idea, worked collectively to achieve outstanding results in a particular area or undertaken a community awareness project since 1 September 2013.
- Youth Achievement Award (volunteers 16–25 years)
Awarded to a volunteer under the age of 25 years who has made a valuable contribution to their unit.

CRITERIA

Nominees need to have met at least one of the following selection criteria to be eligible.

- Dedication to duty beyond normal expectations
- Involvement in the development or implementation of a SES awareness or prevention program (e.g. community safety activity, recruitment drive)
- Contribution to the efficiency, effectiveness and development of the SES through ingenuity and innovation (e.g. new safe work practice, new training method, new procedures)
- Demonstrated excellence in preparedness, response and safety at an incident

SUBMITTING A NOMINATION

Explain below why you have nominated this volunteer, team or unit, and how they meet the criteria (attach additional pages if needed).

For example, let us know the incident or project you are nominating them for, tell us exactly what they did and why you think their actions were outstanding. Did they do more than what was expected of them? How did their actions affect or benefit others including the community? Please provide as much information as possible. Remember, the more information you provide the easier it will be for the judges to make their decision.

For more information please call Zoe Fulwood on (08) 9395 9894 or visit www.dfes.wa.gov.au/awards. Send completed forms to Media and Public Affairs, PO Box P1174, Perth WA 6844 or email to awards@dfes.wa.gov.au. This form can also be downloaded from the DFES website.
